

RIVER OF WORDS 2006 ART & POETRY CONTEST

About the Contest: Each year, River of Words conducts an international poetry and art contest for youth on the theme of watersheds. The contest is designed to help youth explore the natural and cultural history of the place they live, and to express, through poetry and art, what they discover. In turn, the Sacramento River Watershed Program (SRWP) gathers all entries from communities within the Sacramento River Watershed and conducts a regional competition. Winners of the SRWP River of Words contest are announced in multiple press releases and receive prizes such as River of Words t-shirts and books. Winning artwork and poetry is also posted on the SRWP website (www.sacriver.org). Eight grand prize winners and eight finalists are chosen for both artwork and poetry in the following four categories:

Category I: Kindergarten – Grade 2

Category II: Grades 3 – 6

Category III: Grades 7 – 9

Category IV: Grades 10-12

Who is eligible? Children between the ages of 5-19, who are not yet in college.

When is the deadline? Entries must be postmarked by 2/15/06 and received by 2/22/06.

Is there an entry fee? No, the contest is free to enter.

May more than one piece be submitted? Yes, but each entry must have a separate entry form. Entry forms are on the back of this information sheet and available for downloading at www.riverofwords.org.

How do I enter? You may enter the contest through your school, environmental club, scout troop, art organization, or any other such group, or you may enter the contest on your own. Group entries should be sent to River of Words together in one envelope or package, rather than individually. All entries must be sent with a completed entry form and mailed to:

River of Words
PO Box 4000-J
Berkeley, CA 94704

Where can I get more information? Visit River of Words' website at www.riverofwords.org. For information regarding SRWP please contact Mary Lee Knecht, SRWP Education Coordinator. (mlknecht@comcast.net or 916-233-7695) or visit www.sacriver.org.
